

I solemnly swear under the penalty of perjury that the following is true:

- 1) My name is David Herz.
- 2) I was in Ann Arbor, Michigan on October 12, 2002 at the Michigan League Building at the University of Michigan.
- 3) I witnessed participants (participants meaning attendees) of the divestment from Israel conference say the following statements.
- 4) One participant said: "You (the Jews) should all go back to Europe".
- 5) Another participant said: "I hope that there is an uprising in Israel and they overthrow Ariel Sharon and hang him up in his toilet by his toes. Then they should cut him down the middle, I want to hear him cry like a girl."
- 6) A group of around twenty participants stated in Arabic: "Chrad al-Yahud" (unsure of spelling), which in English means "annihilate/destroy the Jews".
- 7) Several participants also chanted "With blood and fire we will liberate Palestine".
- 8) Approximately one hundred participants called for the liberation of Palestine "through kalashnikovs", crying out in Arabic that "the stone has turned into a kalashnikov."
- 9) Around one hundred participants chanted: "Palestine will be free, from the River to the Sea". Thus calling for the complete destruction of the State of Israel.
